Arparla's second CD, Le Grazie del Violino, is a collection of Italian music of the 17th century, for violin with basso continuo and solo harp, featuring works by Marini, Pandolfi-Mealli, Selma, Uccellini, Frescobaldi, Merula and Fontana and a improvisation by Monti. This recording culminates over six years of research by the Monti/Cleary Duo into expressiveness, Affects, Commedia dell'Arte and musical Rhetoric. This music invariably seeks to represent the affects (the graves) and human passions using an experimental structure. The listener is led through slow introductions, fiery passaggi phrases, dance-like rhythmical sections, bassi ostinati and long virtuosi final cadenzas.

The selection is unique in that it is the first CD where the Arpa Doppia is exclusively used as the continuo instrument and the solo works for keyboard have never been recorded before on the harp. An intimate and intense dialogue can be heard between the performers throughout the recording; the range of textures and dynamics combined with brilliant improvisations results in a highly personal interpretation of these works.
